Manelona Ironmen Here Friday Night To Meet Grayling Vikings

Grayling Drops Two Games Last Week

Grayling High Vikings face a comparatively easy task on Tuesday night as they take on the Manelona Ironmen. However, it will get a tougher by Friday night when the Vikings meet the Bay City Bulldogs. The Ironmen, who are currently in second place in the league, moved into Grayling gym.

Their first meeting of the season at Manelona, the Ironmen little trouble in tripping the Vikings by a 54 to 34 in action since that time. The Vikings have shown decided improvement while the Ironmen stumbled a couple of times in the way. Friday night's game should be a good one with the Vikings making much more of it.

Last week proved a disastrous one for Grayling as they dropped their game to Boyne City here last night and were trounced by 2 points at Pellston Friday night.

On Tuesday night, the Ramblers took a 22 to 9 first period lead but Grayling came back to tie the intermission advantage at 27. In the third quarter, the Ironmen outscored the Vikings 14 and by 11 to 6 in the final minutes.

Stater Carl Charon with 23 points paced the winning Ramblers. Roger Hatfield, with 12, was the only Viking in the double figures. Frank Gross added 9 as did Winston who played his game for Grayling. Winston a member of last year's outstanding Frederic Eagle quintet.

He transferred to Grayling but was not eligible to play until the start of the second semester. Don Roberts scored 7 for Grayling. Jack Hull 4 and Oscar Horning 1. Friday night, the Vikings were down 12 to 7 in the first period but battled back to a 22 to 20 deficit by halftime. The Pellston Hornets outscored them 15 to 14 in the third stanza with Grayling taking the last period 10 to 9.

Gross with 12 and Hatfield with 10 were in the double figures for Grayling. Hull and Horning added 7 each. Winston 6 and Gary Springs 2. Grayling played without the services of forward Don Roberts who was home ill.

If Roberts had been in the lineup, Grayling victory would have been almost assured. Durdalek with 14 and Anderson with 11 were high for Pellston.

The Little Vikings had even worse luck than the varsity being trounced both Tuesday and Friday by 2 and 3 points respectively. In Tuesday night's game the halftime edge was with the Little Ramblers by 28 to 27. A poor third quarter in which the visitors hit for 14 little Vikings 7 proved the difference. Although the Grayling reserves came back

Test Huge Snow Plow At Airport

A snow plow able to cut a sixteen foot swath in the snow and able to move 6,000 tons of snow per hour was tested at the Grayling Municipal Air Base this past weekend.

The plow, an invention of Glen Bevin, former Lansing resident and now of St. Paul, Minnesota, weighs 78,000 pounds. The snow removal equipment is so constructed that it can be separated into two parts and flown to its destination in two Flying Boxcar transport planes of the United States Air Force.

A crew of some 30 men, including representatives of the Army Engineers Corps and the Air Force, participated in the tests. The big plow is expected to be turned over to the Air Force to be used in clearing landing surfaces at Air Force bases.

Jack Pine is married to a ski enthusiast. She wasn't a devotee of the sport when he married her, and previous experience was as a child on the plains of South Dakota and a few hills in Minnesota. But now she has the disease worse than her husband has the fire, fishing bug. And that's bad. But where I am content to just fish for people who don't fish, trout with flies, and assume that they don't know any better, she is on a great crusade to make sure that everyone else, we included, take up skiing. She has sort of a sneaky way of going about it, too. By getting many of our mutual friends to berate me mightily for my lack of interest. Take, for instance, Bill Joseph at the Grayling Mercantile. Now Bill has been after me to try skiing for several years, and I have always just laughed at him and accused him of trying to sell me skis, boots, bindings, clothes, wax, poles and all the other skiing paraphernalia. "Super Salesman," I called him. But Friday, when he started in again, he got the look in his eyes which is peculiar only to two other "artists"—the trout fisherman and the pathological arsonist. I'll probably succumb some day, but as far as friend Jack Pine is concerned, he is absolutely all the credit I intend to give them.

Had an unsigned note in the mail recently relating how twenty four women got together to "come as you are" breakfast. Frankly, I can't think of anything more horrible than twenty four women at such an affair. The anonymous note, however, stated that the women had decided to come as they were, and I agree. Signed himself as a husband who was left with a sink full of dirty dishes from a party he didn't before. Heard it was all done to raise money for a local church group. I can make no other comment than to note the fact that at least the idea was "novel". Yeah.

Have also had several comments concerning Plum Street. Seems that that street is more or less a speedway, and several of the residents who live along it or near it are worried that some day it is going to get killed before any of the residents are killed by the traffic. One suggestion was that the city erect a stop sign on Plum where it crosses Ogemaw. Ogemaw is a thru street anyway, and a sign on Plum would protect those who travel it blissfully unaware that there are others who stop for nothing other than a sign. So I took the liberty of calling on the city office where I discussed the suggestions made, and received a promise that the matter would receive the fullest consideration by the city officials who deal in such problems. It may cost a few dollars to erect a sign, but what a lot of people don't know is that every accident in one way or another raises the insurance rates all of us pay on our cars. In that way it is a true saving, not only in money but in accidents, serious injury, and perhaps death.

While on the subject of traffic and the City of Grayling, I am big people are finding it more and more difficult to find parking places in Grayling. And I mean (Continued on page 8)

Sales In Crawford Co. Higher Than State Average

Grayling Retail Roundtable Shows Sizeable Gain In Sales In County

A sizeable gain in sales in Crawford County the past year over the prior year can almost certainly be traced to the activity of the Grayling Retail Roundtable activity of the Grayling Business and Professional Association.

At a meeting of the group held at the high school last Wednesday evening, Howard Somers of Central Michigan College, advisor to the association pointed out that from June 30, 1956 to June 30, 1957, Crawford County had a sales figure per person of $1,450. The state average during the same period was $1,424.33.

Sales in Crawford County for the state's past fiscal year over the prior year showed a gain of 6.10 percent. The figure for the entire state during the same period was a .01 decrease in sales.

Ogemaw County during that period enjoyed only a 1.18 increase; Roscommon County only 5.35 percent increase. Ogemaw County sales went up 1.79; Montmorency County only 1.69; Ogemaw County 1.36; Missaukee County showed a whopping 20.09 decrease; Charlevoix County a 1.31 decrease; Emmet County a 1.41 increase.

Another county in which the Round Table program is being carried on is Cheboygan County which showed a 7.28 increase.

This fine gain has been accomplished mainly by the efforts of the Grayling Business Association, it was felt by many of Grayling's business people. In

Chamber Calls Motel Meeting

The Crawford County Chamber of Commerce has called a meeting of resort and motel owners for next Tuesday, February 11th, at 3:30 in the Adams Room in the basement of the Grayling High School. The primary purpose of the meeting is to get information to assist the Chamber in listing housing facilities for the upcoming national archery shoot, to be held at the Hanson Military Reservation in July.

At 1:45 there will be a film shown, entitled "The Road Ahead". This film, contains on-the-spot interviews with businessmen, and shows the progress of what what bypasses for a town, and will be of interest in connection with the new superhighway coming this way.

The Chamber of Commerce is planning to send a letter to all of the resort and motel people of the Chamber mailing list, with which will be a questionnaire. For those not on the Chamber list, the information the Chamber desires is as follows: The distance from Lansing to the motel or resort, how many singles (two people), doubles (4 people) or more; showers and/or tubs; hot water (yes or no) inside toilets; how many units with cooking facilities; air inlets; radio and/or TV; pets allowed; cribs available?

Plans are to make a list of all housing facilities in the county. This information will be sent out to each inquiry received at the Chamber concerning the Archery meet.

As resorts are filled up with reservations they are requested to notify the Chamber at once. To reserve the stated purpose of this meeting is to get information so that the Chamber may act as a reservation committee, and find out how the local resort and motel owners would like the Chamber to assist in regard to the coming archery shoot, at which some 3,000 archers are expected to attend.

To Open Park Monday Nights

A meeting of the Board of Directors of the Grayling Winter Sports Association was held Monday night at the park. After some discussion, board members have decided to request anyone having any suggestions for park improvement to get in touch with any one of the board members. They are Bill Joseph, Leslie Hunter, Marvin Haggard, Ed Lewis, Melvin Nielson, Eric Post, Lewis Stillwagon, Mrs. Les Welch and Thomas Welsh. The Park Association is interested to expand present ski areas, and suggestions on this would be very welcome.

An adult ski group of above high school age has been organized, and because of this and the present high attendance at the Thursday night ski school, the Board has agreed to open the park to the public on Monday nights. There will be a 50c per person charge on Mondays as on Thursdays, to offset lighting and park operational expense. The present membership rates were set on the basis of Monday nights, and on Saturdays and Sundays, and rather than raise the membership rates, it was felt that a 50c per person charge would be fair to all. Everyone is welcome to attend Monday nights as well as other times.

Woman's Club

President Mrs. John Aler opened the business meeting which began at 8:00 p.m. Monday night at their clubhouse. Thirty-five members were on hand. A committee was chosen for judging the posters made by the school children on dental health. The committee members were Mrs. Don Wood, Mrs. Jack Mason and Mrs. Joe Hull.

A film, "African Safari", was shown as the evening's program. It is the story of Fred Bear's trip to Africa, and the house is at present untenantable, and the Hatfields are just now staying with his brother, Gary.

Alpena Lumberjacks Eke Out 80 To 79 Win Over Aquinas College

An estimated 750 to 800 people filled the Grayling High gym last Saturday night to witness the first college basketball game ever played in Grayling. They saw a spitting contest that the Lumberjacks of Alpena Community College managed to win 80 to 79 over the Tommies of Aquinas College of Grand Rapids.

During the first few minutes of the game was a seesaw affair but then the Lumberjacks started to pull ahead. At times they enjoyed as much as a 14 point advantage. At halftime Alpena held a 40 to 34 lead. The Tommies came back very strong on the able play of 6 foot, 6 inch center, John Coleman was an All Star from Lansing St. Mary's in his undergraduate days.

Aquinas outscored Alpena 45 to 40 in the final twenty minute period but the maroon-clad Lumberjacks stalled off the bid of Aquinas.

Co-captain Nelson Shellenbarger, former Hale luminary, paced Alpena with 21 points on 10 field goals and a foul shot. He was ably assisted by 6 foot, 6 inch Bob Strong, former Grayling Viking player who hit for 17 points on 8 field goals and 5 foul shots. Co-captain Hugo Burdette, former Alpena High star added 16 points on 9 field goals and 10 foul shots. Gary Mischley, former Alpena Catholic Central standout and Grayling's own cage great, Dave Lowe, each added 6 points with Tom McPhillips, Lumberjack forward, also from Alpena. Catholic Central hitting for 9 points on 2 field goals and 5 free throws. Niel Mischley, brother of Gary, added 2 points.

The smooth working Coleman with 24 points and Deb Blondin, 5 foot, 11 inch former Saginaw High standout with 17 points paced the Tommies attack. Art Cham-

Fire Hits Warren Hatfield Home

The Grayling Fire Department was called to the Warren Hatfield home east of the Fish Hatchery at 12:45 P. M. Monday afternoon to put out a fire which started in the chimney. The blaze was discovered by Gary Hatfield, who lives nearby.

Fire Chief Gene Papendick estimated damage to furniture, clothing and attic at about $2,000. There was smoke and water damage to the chimney and the fire itself. The fire had reached the attic by the time the Department arrived on the scene, but the flames were brought under control within ten minutes, according to Chief Papendick. The house is at present untenantable, and the Hatfields are just now staying with his brother, Gary.

Snow Sculpture Contest For High School Classes Now Underway

Compete For Cash Prizes

A snow sculpture contest for high school students is now underway in the City Park near the water tower on US-27. The contest, an idea of Spike MacNeven's, will be judged this weekend during the Winter Sports Carnival.

Invited to judge the contest is John Deckrow, former Grayling resident now of Flint. He will be remembered by many residents as the designer and builder of many of Grayling's most beautiful ice thrones for past carnivals.

The contest is being coordinated by high school instructor, Frank Bond who is also a member of the board of directors of the Crawford County Chamber of Commerce.

Those furnishing the prize money are: Spike MacNeven, R. 2, Willow; A. F. Carlson of Victor Iowa; and Grayling Women's Club of Grayling Business and Professional Association and the Chamber of Commerce.

Participating in the contest are the senior and junior classes and the senior girls of the high school. Prizes will be divided as follows: first, $50.00; second, $30.00 and third, $20.00. The money will be held in escrow to go towards the class senior trip.

Mayor Proclaims Grayling Modern Kitchen Week

Grayling Mayor Emil Giegling today signed his name to a proclamation designating next week as Grayling Modern Kitchen Week.

Cooperating were the Grayling merchants and the Grayling State Bank. On the back page of this issue will be found advertisements offering many features for use in the modernization of your kitchen and home in general.

Good savings are being offered on many, many items and in all cases a large modernization program is being offered. The program is being financed on easy monthly payments through a financing program offered by the local bank.

At this time of year, workmen such as plumbers, electricians, painters and decorators are immediately available to get at your remodeling or decorating job at once.

With spring not too far in the offing, it is a good idea to get any room in your house which is the drab face of winter to the background and bring the fair face of spring to your family long ahead of the rest of the families.

Smaller Property Tax Base Locally

(Special to the Avalanche)

New York, Jan. 27 — What is the assessed value of property in Crawford County? What is the local tax base per capita? How does it compare with that in other parts of the country?

A look at these figures, of interest to everyone who pays local taxes, is now possible, thanks to the Department of Commerce. Its 1957 Census of Governments, currently being released, provides the data which has not been available on a nation-wide basis since 1942.

It shows that in Crawford County, where the property tax is the mainstay of local government, the tax base is based on holdings assessed at $4,395,000.

The figure comprises real property amounting to $5,300,000 and personal property of $1,095,000. Because property is generally assessed for tax purposes at something less than its actual worth, this is not to be taken as the market value. Rather, it is the tax base against which local tax rates are applied.

From a per capita standpoint, the tax base is equivalent to $1,360 for every man, woman and child in Crawford County.

In the rest of the United States, the tax base averages $1,400 per person and, in the State of Michigan, $1,925.

The tax rates used in connection with these assessed values vary widely. Some localities, which assess property at only a fraction of its full value, employ higher rates than those which use the actual value.

Nationally, the survey shows, there are 61 million parcels of taxable realty on local assessment rolls.

Together with personal property, they make available to local taxation some $220 billion in assessed valuations. This is exclusive of holdings belonging to non-profit hospitals, churches, charitable institutions and the Government, which are exempt.

From it, local governments obtain about $12 billion a year, or $70 a person, toward their needs.

With steady pressure from the public for more and better services, local governments are seeking ways and means to add to their revenues. In some cases this has meant higher assessments and, in other cases, new non-property taxes.

SEN. POTTER REPORTS...

From Washington

VETERANS — over 22 million of them — will cheer the good news that the House of Representatives has passed a bill to increase the minimum benefit for World War II veterans.

The chair of the powerful Rules Committee informs me that he is polling every Committee chairman in the Senate for comments and reactions to my resolution. In the meantime, the Rules Committee itself is actively studying the proposal and asserts that when the fourteen chairmen have reported public hearings may be held. The Rules group then will hammer out a decision.

Until now, the Rules Committee has been standing on a dime. This is the first solid action in the direction of a Senate Veterans Committee since the Legislative Reorganization Act of 1946.

Over a year ago, when I introduced the resolution, I pointed out that veterans' problems had been getting second-class treatment. The same holds true today. The House of Representatives does have a Veterans Affairs Committee, but the Senate lacks a corresponding committee. The Senate Veterans Committee, Finance and Labor Public Welfare.

What happens when the Finance Committee is swamped with tax bills, the Veterans Committee is today? What happens when Labor staggers under massive new education and union proposals, as it does at this very moment? Obviously, with the best intentions in the world, those two Committees can only give veterans' bills hit-or-miss attention, often shelve them.

Almost half the population of the United States consists of veterans, their dependents and relatives. This patriotic community of Americans is entitled to a Senate Committee to devote attention to its unique problems. On the other hand, the taxpayer is entitled to know about the veterans benefits, the largest single item in our civilian budget, receive full and careful scrutiny by such a Committee.

Under my resolution, the Senate Veterans Committee would consider legislation covering pensions, life insurance, compensation vocational rehabilitation, education, veterans' hospitals, medical care, civil control and readjustment of service men to civil life, housing, and all other matters relating to veterans.

The tense world situation requires that we keep our military establishment strong and vigorous. Millions of American men and women, therefore, are being fashioned into veterans every day. Their problems deserve understanding, generous, and above all PROMPT treatment by the Senate.

I am delighted that my repeated urging and remarks on the floor of the Senate during 1957 and early 1958 have at last sparked action. Most recently, in my letter of January 10, I reminded the Rules Committee that the American Legion, Veterans of Foreign Wars, Amvets and Disabled American Veterans have all expressed enthusiastic support for such a standing Senate Committee. I am looking forward to working with these groups — and all veterans — toward making the Committee a reality.

Best Wishes,
Charles E. Potter
United States Senator

Fringe Issues Face Legislature As Well As Usual Budget Problem

Fringe Issues before the 1958 legislature have developed an importance all their own while the state of the state's finances form the core of knotty problems.

While the budget will need extra millions to keep the state from bankruptcy, other issues are multiplying.

There is a chance that labor legislation — the right to work issue — will become one of the hottest of the session.

Senator Robert E. Faulkner (R-Coloma), chairman of the Senate labor committee, already is planning a bill to require unions to incorporate.

The bill is simple, as are most of the vocal issues of the day. But it would place unions under the same restrictions that corporations have. Regular audits, government controls and taxes all are part of the controls.

The toughest would be the ban against any corporation making a contribution to a political party or candidate.

Republicans, Democrats and union leaders all predict this would mean the end to the CIO, PAC and other labor groups.

Significantly, labor has generally favored Democrats. Republicans claim further that Democrats and unions used each other to gain power in Michigan and share control of state government.

The right-to-work law, now in effect in Ohio and other states, would end the union shop.

No man could be required to join a union to keep his job.

Labor leaders call this the ultimate in "union-busting." Its advocates call it a "right." It is certain to develop a sizzling battle in Michigan, if introduced.

Democrats will work to get a $90-a-week minimum benefit for unemployed workers and those injured and incapable of working.

Speed limits on county roads

Education has its champions on both sides of the aisle this year.

Rep. Willard I. Bowerman (R-Lansing) has proposed a $100,000,000 bond issue for college and university buildings.

Gov. Williams, in his message to the legislature, proposed the same thing.

Michigan now has the Fair Employment Practices Commission to work against discrimination based on race, creed, color, religion, and national origin in job-holding.

The state also has a series of laws prohibiting discrimination in public places, restaurants, hotels, motels, taverns and other businesses and services.

Republicans proposed last summer that the commission be expanded in scope to also handle the civil rights program.

Gov. Williams, in his message to the legislature, proposed the same thing.

will be another issue this session. The 65 mile-an-hour speed limit during the day and the 55 mile-an-hour ceiling at night in effect for two years is too high, some say.

When the original law was passed, officers said it would not be adequately enforced on county roads.

Now, with the accident and death rates climbing each month on county roads the demand for a speed limit is growing.

License Plates will be another issue, this one touching only indirectly on the financial issue.

Secretary of State James M. Hare is proposing that license plates in 1958, the state issue a plate good for three years, with metal tags for the next two years.

Hare said the program would cost an extra $70,000 the first year, but over the three-year span would save something like $300,000.

The money would be both spent this year and saved over the three-year period from highway construction money.

A separate matter from the problems with the deficit-bound general fund.

Republicans and Democrats are racing the clock and each other on the civil rights issue.

Worthy Good Turn . . .

The Boy Scouts of America observes its 48th anniversary during Boy Scout Week, February 7 to 13, by inching a yearlong nationwide Good Turn. The Safe-Good Turn, undertaken at the suggestion of President Dwight D. Eisenhower, will find 4,700,000 boys and leaders engaged in promoting traffic safety, outdoor safety, and home safety.

We are accustomed to great achievements from Boy Scouts. Their outstanding work in the 1952 1956 Get-Out-the-Vote campaigns, their Conservation Good Turn in 1954, their collection of nearly two million items of clothing, foodstuffs, and supplies for needy in 1934, and other activities in behalf of their low Americans have given us approximately twenty million past and present Boy Scouts who have learned a real meaning of service.

Calling the Safety Good Turn "an opportunity for service to your country in the highest tradition of the Boy Scouts of America," President Eisenhower said, "We must seek new ways to save the basic resources of our Nation: its people."

He told the Boy Scouts that he was encouraged by splendid results of their Conservation Good Turn. Now urge you," he wrote, "to adopt Safety as your vice project for 1956. Through the concerted action your members, and in cooperation with other organizations, you can alert the public to the urgent need for reducing the tragic toll of accidents."

We congratulate the Boy Scouts on past achievements and wish them well as they undertake this great public service to the community, state, and nation.

man — the average man — has never yet created what he enjoys, and this is more than ever true in the age of science and technology, which depends on men 'who can call down fire from heaven'. What we need and our education must produce if we are to survive are uncommon men."

Did you ever think that the men who least need to work are the men who work the hardest? Why? Because it is a pleasure to work. One is happiest when employed. To be compelled to loaf is to a real man a heavy punishment. If you would be a man, work. You cannot find anywhere a lazy boy or man whom anybody respects or who amounts to anything — work.

Two years ago, when Boyne

Tuesday night they made good on that oath for this year by grabbing a 21 to 19 decision in a ball game which hung in the balance during flurries of shots that might have very easily seen Grayling win the decision. The 18 pound, two ounce Great Northern pike being held in the picture above by Willard Harwood of Grayling is the largest fish he has ever taken through the ice in thirty years of pike fishing. The whopping fish was taken in south bay of Lake Margrethe near the National Guard Camp. The fish was 46 1/2 inches long and had a 22 inch girth. On Friday of last week this big pike was beaten out by another big one speared by N. B. VanNatter of Grayling. Mr. VanNatter took his big pike out of west bay on Lake Margrethe. His fish weighed 18 pounds, 4 ounces. The monstrous fish was taken in 12 feet of water with a wooden handled spear. It was the forty-fourth fish this season for Mr. VanNatter.
